

Good Samaritan Fund

Thank you Calvary on behalf of all of the individuals you have helped by donating to the Good Samaritan Fund.

Thank you from the children who received snow boots, the stranded families who have needed lodging for 1 or 2 nights, the single moms who couldn't pay the rent, or the water bill, thank you from the disabled veteran who needed gas for his car.

In Luke 10: 25- 37 this scripture teaches us of the Samaritan who felt pity, for the wounded man on the street, the Samaritan knelt beside the man, soothed and bandaged his wounds, provided lodging, he loved his neighbor. Our neighbor is anyone of any race, creed or social background who is in need, love means acting to meet the persons need.

Merry Christmas Calvary!

Calvary is equipped with a hearing assistance system.
Please ask for a receiver from our ushers.
