

A Note from Pastor Dave

Today we start a sermon series on the 6th chapter of the book of Ephesians. Ephesus was the most important city in Asia Minor. It was a city of trade and the junction of sea routes and land routes between Rome and the orient. A strategic place for missions. This is a real place. Many of us from Calvary saw this place on our 2007 "Turkey Tour" with Dr. Mark Wilson. Even though this church believed all the right things Jesus said in Rev. 2:4 that "you have forsaken your first love". One of the results I would like to see from preaching through this letter is that we would return to our first love for Jesus ... a passion for Jesus ... the joy of salvation!
